

Types of characters

Characters are the heart of any story. well developed characters have distinct personalities ; there are three types of characters .

- A. Protagonist : the main character of the story.
- B. Antagonist : the character who opposes the main character and creat obstacles for his to overcome.
- C. Secondary characters : supporting characters .